

Job offer | Junior evaluator

Are you a passionate professional with a heart for development cooperation and a keen analytical mind? We are looking for a motivated junior evaluator to strengthen our international network and contribute to the impact of our projects around the world.

About the position

As a junior evaluator, you will be responsible for carrying out evaluations and providing support in the field of monitoring and evaluation (M&E) in the international cooperation and development sector. You will work closely with fellow consultants and clients to evaluate and improve projects. This role offers a unique opportunity to contribute to global sustainable development, particularly in the areas of education, democratisation, decent work and good governance. FocusUP carries out impact evaluations in Europe, Africa, Asia and Latin America.

Profile required

We are looking for someone with 3 to 5 years' experience in the development cooperation or international cooperation sector, or with knowledge of monitoring & evaluation and DAC criteria. You will have a solid grounding in social science research methodologies, both qualitative and quantitative, and be able to apply them effectively in a variety of contexts.

Your profile:

- ❖ Education: Preferably a Master's degree in social sciences or related disciplines.
- ❖ Languages: Your French is native and you have a good knowledge of English. A good knowledge of Spanish and/or spoken Dutch is an asset.
- ❖ Research skills and strong analytical capacity: Experience of qualitative research methods and analysis is essential; knowledge of quantitative methods is a plus.
- ❖ Software knowledge: Familiarity with MS Office (Excel and Word) and possibly with software such as Atlas.ti and STATA. Willingness to learn and use new software applications.

Skills required:

- ❖ Excellent communication and interpersonal skills; you know how to interact with colleagues and customers.
- ❖ Flexible planning and respect for deadlines and commitments.
- ❖ Empathy and respect for different opinions and points of view.
- ❖ Willingness to travel (for up to 14 days) within and outside Europe.
- ❖ Eager to learn: You are open to continuous professional development.

What we offer:

- ❖ An opportunity to start out as an independent consultant on a project basis with the potential to grow into a partnership.
- ❖ A dynamic and supportive working environment where you can use and further develop your skills.
- ❖ The opportunity to have a direct impact on international cooperation projects.

- ❖ We offer you the freedom to define your working hours flexibly, according to your personal preferences, with the option of working from home. While regular online meetings are essential to our teamwork, it doesn't matter where you live - whether in Belgium, elsewhere in the Benelux or in France.

Are you ready to take the next step in your career and become part of an international team committed to sustainable development and positive change?
